The Waggy Awards 2025

HONORING

DIANE WARREN AND THE Diane Warren FOUNDATION & MOUSEBUTT RESCUE RANCH

Diane Warren is known for her passionate work as a globally recognized animal rights and animal welfare activist. One of modern music's most celebrated songwriters, Warren is a prolific force in the music world. She started the Diane Warren Foundation over twenty years ago, to offer grants to rescue organizations across the country. In 2017, Diane realized her lifelong dream to start an animal sanctuary. She purchased a ranch in Malibu to create the Mousebutt Rescue Ranch Foundation for farm animals, named after her beloved cat, Mouse, and Parrot, Buttwhings.

In 2023, she added a cat sanctuary to the ranch to pull senior cats from high-kill shelters. She has also worked with rescues to help place numerous dogs in loving homes.

HONORING

HUMANE

Pasadena Humane is more than an animal shelter; they are a community-supported animal resource center providing compassion and care for all animals. Since 1903, Pasadena Humane has offered lifesaving programs and services for animals and the people who love them in the Greater Los Angeles Area. They provide shelter, dedicated care and new beginnings for thousands of our community's most vulnerable animals every year. This year the Waggy Awards is proud to honor them for the incredible work they have done in the aftermath of the wildfires in Southern California.

FIX'N + FIDOS

The Waggy Awards is proud to recognize our host, Kacey Montoya, and her nonprofit organization, Fix'n Fidos. Founded in 2019, Fix'n Fidos was created to fund spay and neuter surgeries for low-income pet owners across Southern California. The organization is dedicated to educating the public on the importance of these procedures while providing financial assistance to those who need it most. In addition to spay/neuter support, Fix'n Fidos also steps in to help cover unexpected veterinary expenses, keeping pets with the families who love them and out of shelters.

Diane Warren

Diane was inducted into the Songwriters Hall of Fame in 2001 and received the prestigious Johnny Mercer Award from the organization in June 2024. Her songs have been featured in more than 150 films. In November 2022, Warren became the first songwriter in history to receive an Honorary Oscar. Her 16th, and most recent Oscar nomination, was for the original song "The Journey," performed by H.E.R.

The documentary Diane Warren: Relentless - provides an intimate, rarely seen look at her life, career and process. She is also an executive-producer, writing multiple songs for the highly anticipated new Disney TV show, "Electric Bloom."

During her impressive career, Warren has written for iconic artists such as Gwen Stefani, Taylor Swift, Beyoncé, Lady Gaga, Aerosmith, John Legend, Sofia Carson, Cher, and too many more to list.

Diane Warren is also the recipient of a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame, a nod to her legendary career.

Kacey Montoya

Kacey Montoya is an Emmy Award-winning journalist and weathercaster at KTLA 5.

In 2019, she started her own 501(c)(3) nonprofit called Fix'n Fidos to help put a dent in the pet population by paying for spay and neuter surgeries for low-income residents in Southern California, and financially assisting pet owners with unexpected vet bills so they don't have to surrender their beloved pets to shelters because they can't afford their medical care.

Kacey's passion for animal welfare shines through her work both on and off camera, and we are thrilled to have her as this year's Waggy Awards Host and to honor her compassion and unwavering commitment to the animal community through her foundation.

Lana Parrilla

An award-winning actress known for her roles in

"Once Upon a Time", "Why Women Kill", "The Lincoln Lawyer", and the new USA Network series "The Rainmaker".

A passionate advocate for animal welfare, LGBTQ+ rights, and survivors of domestic abuse through her work with Face Forward, Lana continues to use her voice for good.

As last year's Waggy Awards recipient, we are honored to welcome her back this year as a presenter.

Dr. Kwane Stewart

Dr. Kwane Stewart — a veterinarian whose nonprofit, Project Street Vet, provides medical care over the past decade to the pets of people experiencing homelessness. His work earned him the title of being the 2023 CNN Hero of the Year. Today, he continues to lead the Project Street Vet mission with his inspirational message of "no judgment, just help". Dr. Kwane Stewart was last year's Waggy Awards honoree and we're excited to welcome him back as a presenter
